

FRIENDS OF THE WECC: WE LOVE YOU!

THE WEST END CULTURAL CENTRE IS A NON-PROFIT MUSIC VENUE OFFERING AN EXCEPTIONAL RANGE OF MUSIC.

Where does the WECC get its funding?

We get our funding in many ways, including ticket sales, hall rentals, sponsorships and grants. But we also rely on the generosity of individual patrons who make donations to the WECC. We call them Friends of the WECC.

Why do you rely on individual donations?

We book on talent, potential and musical interest, not box office draw. It's part of our vision and mandate to provide access to emerging artists, interested audience members and the surrounding community. We keep the price of accessing the WECC reasonable too. Consequently, the price of a ticket to shows only covers about half of our production costs. We turn to a variety of funding partners and the support of our Friends to help us cover the remaining costs.

Can my donation make a difference?

Absolutely. Our patrons know that the West End Cultural Centre is a home for music like no other and they help support our unique mandate, our unique vision and our unique venue. Each Friend of the West End makes a difference.

What will you do with the money I donate?

Friends can choose whether they would like their contribution to be designated to concert presentation, community programming or our current Redevelopment Campaign for a new building.

What does it take to be considered a Friend of the West End Cultural Centre?

A minimum donation of $25 will make you a Friend of the West End.

What do I get in return?

You will receive:

- a charitable tax receipt.
- a calendar by mail.
- a Friends newsletter via email
- an invitation to Friend and Volunteer recognition events
- a listing in our annual report and on our website (unless you prefer to be anonymous)
- the satisfaction of supporting great music — up close & personal.

How can I make a donation?

- Cheque (mail it in or stop by)
- Credit card - VISA or MasterCard (mail, visit or fax it in).

Can I make a donation on the web or by a monthly Pre-authorized Contribution?

Not yet, but we're working on it.
